Section II:

Note to school administrator or registrar:

Below are the curriculum content requirements in the Board's Rules. Curriculum content must show each course in the school's program according to how the courses fit into the four categories listed in the curriculum standards. The curriculum content must reflect a minimum of 500 in-class hours of supervised instruction, any courses offered by distance learning, and the number of hours associated with the distance learning courses. Mail this completed form directly to Board in a sealed envelope, with the school's seal or official's signature across the back of the envelope.

CURRICULUM STANDARDS:

At a minimum, the curriculum shall contain the following hours of specific instruction:

- 1) 200 hours in the fundamental theory and practice of massage and bodywork therapy, which shall include a minimum of 100 hours in application of hands-on methods; the balance of such hours shall include client assessment skills, indications and contraindications for treatment, body mechanics, draping procedures, standard practices for hygiene and control of infectious diseases, and the history of massage and bodywork therapy;
- 2) 100 hours in anatomy and physiology, which shall include the structure and function of the human body and common pathologies;
- 3) 50 hours in the following areas:
 - 15 hours in professional ethics, North Carolina laws (or state in which applicant attended school) and rules for the practice of massage and bodywork therapy;
 - 15 hours in business practices related to the field of massage and bodywork therapy; and
 - 20 hours in psychological concepts related to the practice of massage and bodywork therapy, including dynamics of the client/therapist relationship, professional communication skills, the mind-body connection, and boundary functions;
- 4) 150 hours in other courses related to the practice of massage and bodywork therapy; such courses may include additional hands-on techniques, specific applications, adjunctive modalities, in-depth anatomy and physiology, kinesiology, psychology, movement education, or supervised clinical practice.

MESSAGE THERAPY CURRICULUM VERIFICATION STATEMENT:

1) The massage therapy curriculum offers the following courses through distance learning (include the number of hours associated with each distance learning course): _____

2) The applicant completed the following massage therapy curriculum via distance learning (include the number of hours associated with each distance learning course): _____

3) As an authorized representative of the massage school listed above, I hereby certify that the massage therapy curriculum completed by the applicant provided a minimum of 500 in-class hours of supervised instruction (not distance learning) and meets or exceeds the minimum Curriculum Standards listed above in Section II.
